I have decided to join with FCA to see the world impacted for Jesus Christ. I desire to see our trip be as effective as possible by adhering to the FCA Core Values:

Integrity

We will demonstrate Christ-like wholeness, privately and publicly.

Serving

We will model Jesus' example of serving.

Teamwork

We will express our unity in Christ in all our relationships.

Excellence

We will honor and glorify God in all we do.

- I am representing Jesus Christ, FCA and partnering organizations on this trip. All my words and actions need to be above reproach.
- I realize I will be pushed out of my comfort zone. I must keep a positive attitude and remain teachable when confronted with cultures, accommodations, food, transportation or anything else that causes me to be stretched or uncomfortable on this trip.
- I will make every effort to meet the deadlines for turning in my money, and I know that I may be removed from the team if this is not fulfilled. I realize that all money turned in is non-refundable.
- As a team member, I will work under the leadership of the FCA staff and my team leaders, and I will obey and respect their authority. I will follow the behavioral, spiritual and safety guidelines that are given to our team.
- I will not complain during the trip or cause dissension.
- I understand that I am not to pursue any romantic interest or develop any "special relationship" during this trip (being physical with this person in any way). Should I become interested in anyone during the trip, I understand that I may tell a team leader about this interest if I so choose, but that I may not discuss it with this person or with any other participant during the trip.
- I will follow the team's and the culture's dress codes.
- I will be sensitive to the practices, food and living situations of the culture that I am visiting. I will not criticize or complain.
- I understand that I may be sent back to the U.S. at my own expense if I'm unable or unwilling to meet the above conditions.
